HERITAGE & WINES SAS 15 Rue DES HALLES 75001 , PARIS , FRANCE

Our Mission, Our Passion

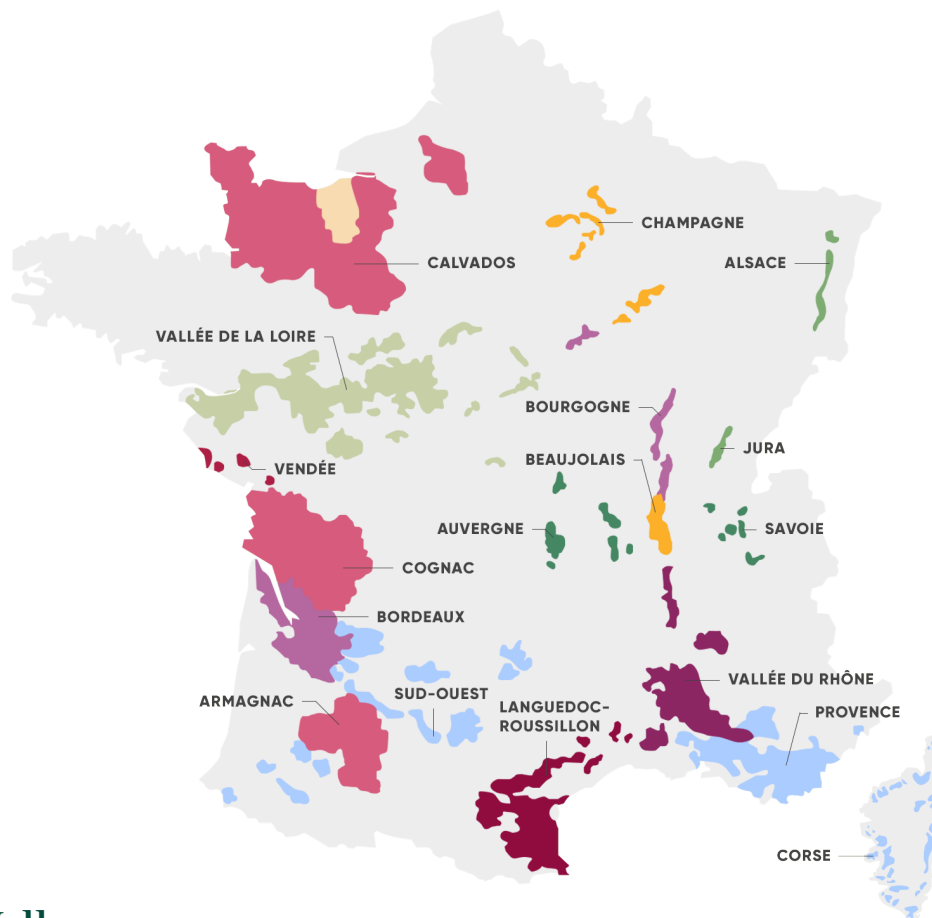

Like local gastronomy, at Heritage & Wines we seek to reveal the original flavors of our provinces, our winemaking traditions and our culinary creations. Harvesting, picking, selection, blending and preparation are unique and key moments in this philosophy. That's why we invite selected artisans and producer families to work together to offer you a selection of products and wines, and help you discover the secrets of our artisan winemakers and creators of gastronomic sensations.

The wines and gourmet products we've selected come from the French and Italian provinces, and are crafted by masters of the art, passionate about offering the best of their traditions. It's important for the Heritage & Wines' team to open up this world of craftsmanship to you, and to protect small, independent producers in a market where competition and volume often win out over quality and flavour...

Our strong involvement in favor to natural and sustainable production, bio-harvesting practices and the passing of century old traditions is recognized with the several labels that you will see on our selected products. We thank you sincerely for having chosen Heritage & Wines as your partner, supplier of traditional wines, spirits and gourmet products. We hope one day to know you personally and walk you through one of our vineyards or factories.

South of France is renowned for its picturesque landscapes, warm climate, and rich wine culture. It encompasses several distinct wine regions, each with its own unique grape varieties and winemaking traditions. Some of the notable wine regions in the South of France include:

Rhône Valley:

Although part of the Rhône Valley lies in the southeastern region, the southern part is where some of the most iconic wines are produced. Côtes du Rhône, Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Gigondas, and Vacqueyras are just a few examples of the renowned wines originating from this area.

Languedoc-Roussillon:

This is the largest wine-producing region in France, spanning from the Pyrenees to the Rhône River. It is known for producing a wide range of wines, from full-bodied reds like Minervois and Corbières to fresh and fruity whites like Picpoul de Pinet and Limoux sparkling wines. Roussillon cuisine is influenced by Catalan traditions. The region is known for its use of spices like saffron, paprika, and cinnamon. Sweet and savory dishes often combine flavors, such as Ollada (a meat and vegetable stew) and Rousquilles (a type of pastry)

Provence:

Famous for its rosé wines, Provence is a picturesque wine region located in the southeastern part of France. The region also produces red and white wines, but it is the pale pink rosé that has gained international acclaim and popularity. The region is known for its use of local ingredients, including olives, garlic, and tomatoes. Socca, Pissaladière, and Pan Bagnat (a tuna sandwich) are popular dishes. This glamorous coastal region is known for its seafood and fresh produce. Socca, a chickpea flour pancake, and Pissaladière are popular local snacks. The cuisine here is often light and features dishes like Bouillabaisse, seafood platters, and salads with a wide variety of herbs and citrus flavors.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

1 - GENERALITIES

Any order placed with Heritage & Wines implies unconditional acceptance of the following terms and conditions that prevail over any terms and conditions of purchase or any document emanating from the customer.

1.1 The information, norms and characteristics featured in the documents of Heritage & Wines (catalogues, notes, sheets, brochures...) are provided on a purely information basis.

1.2 The products listed there are subject to change or delete without notice. Heritage & Wines reserves the right to modify its products as deemed appropriate, even after the orders acceptance, without, however, the principal characteristics and performances being affected. Our Products presented in our catalogues or prospectus can be subject to modifications without prior notice due to technical or regulatory changes.

2 - ORDERS: The orders addressed to Heritage & Wines directly by our clients or transmitted by our co-workers, bind suppliers only when they were confirmed by a written document (fax, mail). It remains our policy to require a minimum mixed order of 150€ or equivalent 2 cases (12 bottles).

3 - PRICING: The prices are quoted in Euros (€), exclusive France VAT, depending on availability and excluding variations. Orders departure is from metropolitan France only, from our warehouses. The terms and conditions specified in our offers are fixed for a limited period of 30 days, unless otherwise specified between the Parties.

3.1 Qualitative or quantitative rebates and commercial partnerships are stated exclusive of duties and taxes for each of our products. Unless sold and without incurring any liability, excepting misprints and readout errors.

3.2 Prices may vary according to country of delivery in order to bear different administrative or customs fees.

The price featured in product sheet is indicated excluding transport costs. The delivery fees are to be paid depending on the destination country and the quantities of bottles ordered. The company Heritage & Wines reserves the right to change its prices at any time.

4 - SAMPLES: Any samples will be invoiced and refunded with the first order.

5 - DELIVERY: All delivery costs, (specific packaging, freight, carriage, customs charges etc) are borne by the Client. For the orders intended for continental European destinations, delivery occurs when the goods have been unloaded at the place specified by the client.

5.1 For the orders intended for French Overseas Departments and Territories or abroad, delivery occurs from the pick-up date of products at Heritage & Wines.

5.2 Delivery deadlines are provided as an estimate. Their non-compliance does not lead to the cancellation of the order or payment of damages and interest. Delivery times given for products are "Ex Works".

5.3 Regardless of shipment method, our goods are always transported at recipient's risk and peril. The recipient must check the number and the condition of parcels, prior to taking delivery, and if necessary, all issues must be raised with the shipping company by registered letter within 3 days and confirmed with Heritage & Wines.

5.4 All deliveries must satisfy the European Guideline 2000/13/EG and the Commodities Act Decree concerning the Labelling of Food Products which is based upon it, as well as the European hygiene guideline 93/43/EEG and the Dutch Commodities Act Decree concerning the hygiene of food products which is based upon it, especially as regards the HACCP regulations.

5.5 Packaging must satisfy the requirements of all countries in which or through which the goods are transported up to the end destination. Heritage & Wines, being the seller, is responsible for the correctness of all paperwork, declarations and documents which accompany the goods or in which it is declared by the seller or on the seller's behalf that they relate to the goods.

5.6 The goods must be properly packaged. The seller, Heritage & Wines, is liable for any damage caused to persons or goods as a result of inadequate packaging and/or damage to or destruction of the packaging in question.

6 - COMPLIANCE-RECEPTION: The condition, the compliance, the absence of defects and the quality of products must be verified by the client at his/her own expense and risk at the time of delivery. Any claims related to missing or damaged parts must be notified by registered letter with photographs, with acknowledgement of receipt to Heritage & Wines and to the transporter with the documents provided by the company within 3 days after the delivery of products.

The client is responsible for the damage suffered by Heritage & Wines in the case of non-compliance with this procedure. If these conditions are not met, the products delivered will be considered as conforming and Heritage & Wines shall not be held liable.

8 - RETURNS: No returns shall be accepted without Heritage & Wines's written agreement. The products must be returned in perfect condition in their original packaging and must not be disassembled or/and changed. Returns will give rise to a credit note on a later purchase, once the perfect condition of returned products has been verified.

9 - PAYMENT: Unless otherwise stated, the products are payable following date of invoice. No discount will be granted for early payment. The total price of the order is due before delivery in case of insolvency of client and/or for each initial order.

9.1 The invoices are payable in Euros (€) directly at each winegrowers registered in our office. The client waives his right to set-off with respect of all claims against Wines Export Agency.

9.2 Any delay of payment shall lead ipso jure to a penalty calculated by applying, to the total amounts remaining due, an interest rate equal to 3 times the legal interest rate. In case of late payment, the client has also to pay a lump sum of 40 Euros (€) as compensation for recovery costs. The penalties are calculated based on pre-tax amounts due, but give rise to payment of France VAT.

9.3 In case of default of payment of one single invoice on the due date, Heritage & Wines reserves the right, without preliminary notice, to modify the status of possibly agreed ongoing order and/or cancel suspend or cancel current delivery.

10 - RESERVATION OF OWNERSHIP: Heritage & Wines retains the property rights to all sold items until payment has been received in full, which signifies the actual payment on their accounts sales. In the case of even partial non-payment of an invoice on the due date, the sale will be cancelled as of right, if Heritage & Wines deems fit. The client shall then return all products to Heritage & Wines at his/her own expense and risk. Heritage & Wines will hold possible prepayments as an advance on damages, without prejudice to complementary compensation.

11 - INCOTERMS: ® The interpretation of commercial clauses shall be governed by the latest valid version of INCOTERMS® at the time of the signature of the contract.

12 - DELIVERY DEADLINE: The delivery deadlines planned in our order confirmations are provided for indicative purposes only, and the possible delays do not give the right to the client to refuse the goods or to claim damages or interest.

13 - FORCE MAJEUR: Heritage & Wines can't be held responsible for non-performance of its contractual obligations due to force majeure. Force majeure is understood to mean any event beyond Heritage & Wines's control, such as strikes, work disruptions or other means of civil unrest, failed deliveries by suppliers, products' unavailability or inventory shortage, failure to provide administrative authorization, particularly for resale and export, unavailability of means of transport.

14 - COMPLAINTS: In order to be admissible, complaints must be done within 3 days following the date of receipt and allow precise identification of the incident and product (marking, date). A copy of delivery note must be attached, as well as a copy of carrier's note. Defective products must be returned to us.

15 - REPRODUCTION: Reproduction of this material in whole or in part without permission from Heritage & Wines is prohibited.

16 - JURISDICTION: All disputes in connection with these terms and conditions and the contracts formed under them, shall be wholly within the jurisdiction of the Commercial Court of NICE (France) that will decide under French law, even in the case of summary judgements, introduction of third parties or multiple defendants

These are just a few of the prominent wine regions in the South of France. Each of them contributes to the region's rich winemaking heritage and offers a delightful array of wines to be explored and enjoyed. Our selected provinces are a gastronomic paradise with a rich culinary heritage
